

Research Guide HIST 203 – Europe’s Crisis of Modernity
Prof. R. Mitchell / Spring 2014
Resources compiled by Jen Starkey
jstarkey@oberlin.edu

Background Information / Context Sources

Oxford Reference Online

<http://www.oxfordreference.com/>

Entries in encyclopedias published by Oxford Univ. Press; authoritative alternative to Wikipedia

Grove Art Online (Oxford)

<http://www.oxfordartonline.com/>

Overview of Artists, Works, Themes, Techniques, with bibliographies

Oxford Music Online

<http://www.oxfordmusiconline.com>

Background information on music and composers, with bibliographies

Literature Resource Center

<http://go.galegroup.com/ps/start.do?p=GLS&u=ohLink20>

Background information and literary criticism in full text

Encyclopedia of European social history from 1350 to 2000, New York : Scribner, c2001

Main Reference HN373 .E63 2000 (6 volumes)

Encyclopedia of the age of imperialism, 1800-1914 / Greenwood Press, 2008

Main Reference D358 .E45 2008 2 vols

OBIS and OhioLINK

OBIS : Catalog of books and ebooks available at Oberlin

<http://obis.oberlin.edu/>

OhioLINK : Catalog of books at other Ohio libraries, many of which you can request; delivered in 3-5 days

<http://olc1.ohiolink.edu/search/>

Selected Subject Headings (LCSH – Library of Congress Subject Headings)

Europe, Eastern -- History – Sources

Europe -- History -- Sources

Nationalism -- Germany -- History -- 19th century

Working class -- Germany – History

Kafka, Franz, 1883-1924 -- Criticism and interpretation

Music -- Russia -- 19th century -- History and criticism

Scholarly Journal Articles

Historical Abstracts articles in journals covering world history 15th cent. to present

American Bibliography of Slavic & East European Studies \(ABSEES\) articles on East-Central Europe, Russia, and the former Soviet Union

Music Index articles in music journals

Art Full Text articles in art journals

Google Scholar books and articles on any subject,

JSTOR full-text articles in a subset of journals from all disciplines, generally excludes recent 3-5 years

MLA International Bibliography citations for articles, books, and essays covering literature

Resources for primary source materials on the web

EuroDocs (Gateway Site)

<http://eudocs.lib.bry.edu/>

Selected links to digital primary sources; organized by country and time period

Europeana: Europe's Digital Library

<http://www.europeana.eu/portal/>

Millions of digital objects: film, photos, paintings, sound recordings, maps, manuscripts, books, newspapers and archival papers; from already digitized resources available in Europe's museums, libraries and archives

Internet Modern History Sourcebook (Gateway Site)

<http://www.fordham.edu/Halsall/mod/modsbook.asp>

Selected sources available on the web.

Marxists Internet Archive

www.marxists.org

Online Library of texts by Marxist thinkers from all over the world, and from many different movements under the umbrella of marxism

Naxos Music Library

<http://OberlinColl.NaxosMusicLibrary.com>

Streaming music, primarily classical

Research guide to primary and secondary sources in European history

<http://guides.lib.washington.edu/europe>

A page with lots of links to digital collections of European history sources, created by a librarian at the University of Washington

Art and Image Resources

ArtStor – large collection of art images with global coverage from prehistory to the present

CAMIO: Catalog of Art Museum Images Online – searchable digital image collections from numerous museums

Grove Art Online – comprehensive art reference source from Oxford Univ. Press

Wikimedia Commons – free images on the web including art and architectural images

Ask questions / get research advice

Sign up for a Research Appointment if you would like to schedule in-depth individualized research assistance.

Drop-in at Academic Commons Research Desk
Mon-Thurs: 10-noon, 1-5, 7-midnight
Fri: 10-noon, 1-5
Sat: noon-5
Sun: noon-5, 7-midnight

Call (440) 775-5031 (hours are the same as Research Desk)

IM Click on “Ask a Librarian” on the library’s home page

Email reference@oberlin.edu