

OBERLIN

COLLEGE & CONSERVATORY

Office of Conservatory Communications

Oberlin Baroque

For forty years, Oberlin's name has been synonymous with the highest artistic quality of historical performance practices. Oberlin Baroque is an ensemble from the conservatory's renowned Historical Performance department. Formed of majors at the undergraduate and Master's level, these accomplished young artists work with an internationally renowned faculty and guest artists, gaining experience in a broad range of practices changing in response to the new discoveries and fresh understandings in this dynamic field.